Ps 118:137, 124 You are just, O Lord, and your judgment is right; treat your servant in accord with your merciful love.

1st Reading Isa 35:4-7

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

Say to all faint hearts, 'Courage! Do not be afraid. Look, your God is coming, vengeance is coming, the retribution of God; he is coming to save you.' Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, the ears of the deaf unsealed, then the lame shall leap like a deer and the tongues of the dumb sing for joy; for water gushes in the desert, streams in the wasteland, the scorched earth becomes a lake, the parched land springs of water.

The Word of the Lord All: Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm 145:7-10

RESPONSE: Praise the Lord, my soul!

It is the Lord who keeps faith for ever, who is just to those who are oppressed. It is he who gives bread to the hungry, the Lord, who sets prisoners free. R/

It is the Lord who gives sight him. to the blind, who raises up those who are bowed down, All: Thanks be to God the Lord who loves the just, the Lord, who protects the stranger. R/

HE MAKES THE DEAF HEAR!

The Lord upholds the widow and orphan, but thwarts the path of the wicked. The Lord will reign for ever, Zion's God, from age to age. R/

Jam 2:1-5 2nd ReadinG

A reading from the letter of St James

My brothers, do not try to combine faith in Jesus Christ, our glorified Lord, with the making of distinctions between classes of people. Now suppose a man comes into your synagogue, beautifully dressed and with a gold ring on, and at the same time a poor man comes in, in shabby clothes, and you take notice of the well -dressed man, and say, 'Come this way to the best seats;' then you tell the poor man, 'Stand over there' or 'You can sit on the floor by my footrest.' Can't you see that you have used two different standards in your mind, and turned yourselves into judges, and corrupt judges at that? Listen, my dear brothers: it was those who are poor according to the world that God chose, to be rich in faith and to be the heirs to the kingdom which he promised to those who love The Gospel of the Lord

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Mt 4:23

Alléluia, alléluia! Jesus preached the Good News of the kingdom and healed all who were sick. Alléluia!

GOSPEL Mk 7:31-37

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

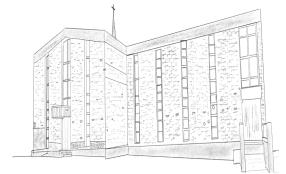

Returning from the district of Tyre, lesus went by way of Sidon towards the Sea of Galilee, right through the Decapolis region. And they brought him a deaf man who had an impediment in his speech; and they asked him to lay his hand on him. He took him aside in private, away from the crowd, put his fingers into the man's ears and touched his tongue with spittle. Then looking up to heaven he sighed; and he said to him, 'Ephphatha,' that is, 'Be opened.' And his ears were opened, and the ligament of his tongue was loosened and he spoke clearly. And Jesus ordered them to tell no one about it, but the more he insisted, the more widely they published it. Their admiration was unbounded. 'He has done all things well,' they said 'he makes the deaf hear and the dumb speak.'

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

HE HAS MADE THE DEAF HEAR AND THE DUMB SPEAK.

8th September 2024

Just as the divine law says that when God created the world he saw all that he had made and it was very good, so the gospel, speaking of our redemption and re-creation, affirms: He has done all things well. A good tree bears good fruit; no good tree can bear bad fruit. As fire can give out nothing but heat and is incapable of giving out cold; and as the sun gives out nothing but light and is incapable of giving out darkness, so God is incapable of doing anything but good, for he is infinite goodness and light. He is a sun giving out endless light, a fire producing endless warmth. He has done all things well. And so today we must wholeheartedly unite with that holy throng in saying: He has done all things well. He has made the deaf hear and the dumb speak. Like Balaam's ass, this crowd certainly spoke under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. Clearly it was the Holy Spirit who said through its mouth: He has done all things well; in other words he is truly God, because making the deaf hear and the dumb speak are things that only God can do. There is a transition here from the particular to the general. This man has worked a miracle that only God could work; therefore he is God, who has done all things well. He has done all things well. The law says that all God did was good; the gospel says he has done all things well. Doing a good deed is not quite the same as doing it well. Many do good deeds but fail to do them well. The deeds of hypocrites, for example, are good, but they are done in the wrong spirit, with a perverse and defective intention. Everything God d9es, however, is not only good but is also done well. The Lord is just in all his ways and holy in all his deeds. With wisdom you have done them all: that is to say, most wisely and well. So he has done all things well, they say. Now if God has done all his good works and done them well for our sake, knowing that we take pleasure in goodness, why I ask do we not endeavor to make all our works good and to do them well, knowing that such works are pleasing to God? If you ask what we should do in order to enjoy the divine blessings for ever, I will tell you in a word. Since the Church is called the bride of Christ and of God, we must do what a good wife does for her husband. Then God will treat us as a good husband treats a dearly loved wife. This is what the Lord says through Hosea: I will betroth you to myself with justice and integrity, with tenderness and compas-sion; I will betroth you to myself with faithfulness, and you shall know that I am the Lord. So even in this present life we shall be happy, this world will be an earthly paradise for us; with the Hebrews we shall feast on heavenly manna in the desert of this life, if only we follow Christ's example by striving to do everything well, so that he has done all things well may be said of each one of us.

Protecting Children and Adults in the Catholic Church

SAFEGUARDING SUNDAY—8 SEPTEMBER 2024

This weekend, the Catholic Church in Australia marks Safeguarding Sunday, on which we pray for those who have been abused, their families and supporters. We recognise and apologise for the harm done by priests, religious and lay people in Church settings. Rebuilding trust and confidence in the Church requires constant work and vigilance. We recommit to cultural change that will help the Church be a place where people feel safe and supported.

THE NATIVITY OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY refers to the birthday of the Blessed Virgin Mary by her parents St. Anne and St. Joachim. The Catholic Church celebrates Mary's birthday on September 8th, nine months after the solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, celebrated on December 8th. The Feast, like the Assumption of Mary, originated in Jerusalem. It began in the fifth century as the Feast of the "Basilica Sanctae Mariae ubi nata est", now called the Basilica of St. Anne. In the seventh century, the feast was celebrated at Rome as the Feast of the Birth of

Safeguarding Prayer

Lord Jesus, Hear our voices as we pray for your care and protection. Strengthen and guide us as we strive to make our Catholic communities a safe place for all. Give us the wisdom and courage to listen with open hearts, see with open eyes, and speak out to ensure children and adults are safe, loved, respected, and cared for. We also pray for those who have been harmed. Give them the courage to seek the truth and to heal. May we all strive to understand our collective responsibility to work together to safeguard our Catholic communities. We ask this through Christ, our Lord,

OUR SICK

Please keep those who are sick at home, and in nursing homes and in the general community in your prayers. Let us keep our parishioners who are unable to be with us at Mass:

> Dariusz Rapcewicz Francesca Letizia Maria Pereira Maria Blaszczynska Jill Ivey Leon & Burchell Jones Julie Atrache Daphne Da Rosa Mrs. Loreto Pell Tim and Estelle Beckett

Requiescat in Pace

For family members & friends who have recently passed to Eternal Life, and especially for all the departed Souls:

> Norma D'Almada Remedios who passed away on 26th August 2024

Eternal rest, grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace.
