

My words WILL NOT pass away

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON JER 29:11,12,14
The Lord said: I think thoughts of peace and not of affliction. You will call upon me, and I will answer you, and I will lead back your captives from every place.

1st Reading DAN 12:1-3
A reading from the prophet Daniel

'At that time Michael will stand up, the great prince who mounts guard over your people. There is going to be a time of great distress, unparalleled since nations first came into existence. When that time comes, your own people will be spared, all those whose names are found written in the Book. Of those who lie sleeping in the dust of the earth many will awake, some to everlasting life, some to shame and everlasting disgrace. The learned will shine as brightly as the vault of heaven, and those who have instructed many in virtue, as bright as stars for all eternity.'

The Word of the Lord

All: Thanks be to God

RESPONSORIAL PS 15:5,8-11
Response: Keep me safe, O God; you are my hope.

O Lord, it is you who are my portion and cup; it is you yourself who are my prize. I keep the Lord ever in my sight: since he is at my right hand, I shall stand firm. R/

And so my heart rejoices, my soul is glad; even my body shall rest in safety. For you will not leave my soul among the dead, nor let your beloved know decay. R/

You will show me the path of life, the fullness of joy in your presence, at your right hand happiness for ever. R/

2nd Reading Heb 10:11-14,18
A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

All the priests stand at their duties every day, offering over and over again the same sacrifices which are quite incapable of taking sins away. Christ, on the other hand, has offered one single sacrifice for sins, and then taken his place for ever, at the right hand of God, where he is now waiting until his enemies are made into a footstool for him. By virtue of that one single offering, he has achieved the eternal perfection of all whom he is sanctifying. When all sins have been forgiven, there can be no more sin offerings.

The Word of the Lord

All: Thanks be to God

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION LK 21:36
Alléluia, alléluia! Be watchful, pray constantly, that you may be worthy to stand before the Son of Man. Alléluia!

GOSPEL Mk 13:24-32
A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

Jesus said to his disciples: 'In those days, after the time of distress, the sun will be darkened, the moon will lose its brightness, the stars will come falling from heaven and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. And then they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory; then too he will send the angels to gather his chosen from the four winds, from the ends of the world to the ends of heaven. 'Take the fig tree as a parable: as soon as its twigs grow supple and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. So with you, when you see these things happening: know that he is near, at the very gates. I tell you solemnly, before this generation has passed away all these things will have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. 'But as for that day or hour, nobody knows it, neither the angels of heaven, nor the Son; no one but the Father.

The Gospel of the Lord

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

He shall gather his elect from the four winds

All those who hold to true faith in our Lord Jesus Christ and show proof of their faith by good works, guarding themselves from sins or cleansing themselves from their stains by confession and repen-tance; who practice the virtues opposed to those sins-temperance, chastity, love, alms giving, justice, and fair dealing-all these, I say, will rise again to hear the king of heaven himself saying to them: Come, my Father's blessed ones, inherit the kingdom prepared for you since the creation of the world. So will they reign with Christ, receiving as their inheritance that heavenly kingdom which cannot be shaken, living for ever in the ineffable light that knows no evening and is interrupted by no night, having fellowship with all the saints who have lived from the beginning of time, and enjoying delights beyond description in Abraham's embrace, where all pain has fled away, and all grief and groaning. For just as there is a harvest for inanimate sheaves of wheat, so for the rational wheat which is the human race, there is a harvest that cuts people away from unbelief, and gathers into faith those who accept the proclamation of the good news. The reapers of this harvest are the Lord's apostles and their successors, and in the course of time the teachers of the Church. Of them the Lord said: The reaper receives his wages, and gathers a crop for eternal life, for teachers who instruct others in piety will in their turn receive from God such recompense as befits those who gather the obedient into eternal life. But there is yet another er harvest: the transfer of each one of us by death from this present life into that which is to come. The reapers of this harvest are not the apostles but the angels, who have a greater responsibility than the apostles, because after the harvesting they sort out the good and separate them from the wicked like wheat from darnel. The good they send on to the kingdom of heaven, but the wicked they throw into hell fire. As for us, who in this present age are God's chosen people, a priestly race, the Church of the living God separated from all the impious and ungodly, may we be found separated from the darnel in the age to come as well, and united to those who are saved in Christ our Lord, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

Presentation Sisters celebrate the Feast of the Presentation of Mary in the Temple on November 21 each year. The Presentation Sisters in WA continue to work providing assistance, advice and other services to the needy, in the true spirit of Nano Nagle, Foundress of the Presentation Sisters who felt compelled to help those deprived of hope and meaning. We thank them for their dedication.

WORLD DAY OF THE POOR – SUNDAY 17TH NOVEMBER

The World Day of the Poor was established by Pope Francis in his Apostolic Letter, Misericordia et Misera, issued on 20 November 2016 to celebrate the end of the Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy and was first observed on 19 November 2017, with the theme, "Let us love, not with words but with deeds". In his message for that first World Day of the Poor, Pope Francis said that "the Our Father is the prayer of the poor". He held a special Mass in St. Peter's Basilica, followed by a free lunch in the adjacent Paul VI Hall, in several Catholic colleges, and in other Vatican venues. During the week preceding the World Day of the Poor, free specialized medical services were offered at a mobile clinic.
